INTRODUCTION

This is a Departmental Open Spot examination for the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

EEO

The State of California is an equal opportunity employer to all, regardless of age, ancestry, color, disability (mental and physical), exercising the right to family care and medical leave, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, political affiliation, race, religious creed, sex (includes pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions), and sexual orientation.

DRUG FREE STATEMENT

It is an objective of the state of California to achieve a drug-free state work place. Any applicant for state employment will be expected to behave in accordance with this objective because the use of illegal drugs is inconsistent with the law of the state, the rules governing civil service and the special trust placed in public servants.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Applicants who meet the minimum qualifications as states below may apply for this examination at any time. Once you have taken the examination, you may not reapply for twelve (12) months.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS

Final File Date: Continuous

Where to Apply: A Standard State Application (STD 678) is required for this examination and can be submitted via the State Fund Jobs Online feature at www.statefundca.com/careers/currentexams.asp.

Interested applicants must register for a State Fund Jobs Online login and password in order to complete and submit the required Standard State Application (STD 678). Applicants, who submit a State Fund Jobs Online exam application, will receive an e-mail containing a confirmation number.

This experience shall include at least one year in a position comparable in level, scope, responsibility and duties to that of a Junior Ergonomic Specialist, SCIF, in California state service. (A Master's Degree in Ergonomics or a closely related field may be substituted for the two years of the required experience.) And Education: Equivalent to graduation from an accredited college or equivalent degree (certificate or diploma) as approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction under the provisions of California Education Code Section 94310, with specialization in ergonomics or human factors or a closely related field, including anatomy, biomechanics, industrial engineering, kinesiology, medicine, occupational health, physical anthropology, physical education, physiology, psychology or systems engineering.

POSITION DESCRIPTION

This is the first working professional level. Under direction, performs ergonomic field work of average difficulty; conducts preliminary ergonomic evaluations of insured's specific operations, evaluates and interprets results and offers possible solutions; contributes to the development of internal ergonomic guidelines, standards, procedures, and policies; consults with field personnel on typical ergonomic questions; assists in the development of ergonomic training programs for field personnel and employers, serving as an instructor in such programs; facilitates in the design, construction and use of special field apparatuses; collects statistics and information from job site analyses and studies, prepares reports, and dictates correspondence; and performs other related work under general supervision.

This is a field position which requires traveling in Northern or Southern California.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION

TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE (T&E) - WEIGHTED 100.00%

The sole component of the Assistant Ergonomic Specialist, SCIF examination will consist of a T&E examination. To obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum score of 70% must be received.

Applicants are required to respond to the T&E questions provided on this announcement. For each listed knowledge, skill, and ability statement within the T&E examination, applicants will need to provide the following:

- 1) Identify the one professional reference who can best verify the response you provide for each knowledge, skill, and ability statement (Within the T&E you will have an opportunity to pre-list up to five professional references and from this listing you will identify the one professional reference).
- 2) Identifying level of proficiency and experience rating.
- 3) Provide a brief narrative example for each knowledge, skill, and ability.

Any knowledge, skill, and ability statement missing a professional reference, level of proficiency rating, level of experience rating, or a brief narrative example will not be scored.

All information applicants provide in this examination is subject to verification.

In addition to evaluating the competitors' relative abilities as demonstrated by quality and breadth of experience, emphasis in the examination will be measuring competitively, relative to job demands, each competitor's knowledge and abilities as outlined below.

Knowledge of:

1. Basic ergonomic principles and methods.
2. State and Federal laws, rules, and regulations on the health of industrial workers.
3. Ergonomic health and safety practices.
4. Workers' compensation laws.

Ability to:

1. Analyze situations accurately.
2. Derive recommendations and take effective action.
3. Establish and maintain cooperative relations with those contacted in the course of work.
4. Communicate effectively.
5. Prepare clear and concise reports.
1. Analyze, design and evaluate products, systems and environments for human use in the occupational arena.

VETERANS PREFERENCE

Veterans Preference will be granted in this examination.

Effective January 1, 2014, in accordance with Government Codes 18973.1 and 18973.5, Veterans' Preference will be awarded as follows: 1) Any veteran, widow or widower of a veteran, or spouse of a 100 percent disabled veteran, who achieves a passing score in an entrance examination, shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligibility list. Any veteran who has been dishonorably discharged or released is not eligible for Veterans' Preference. 2) An entrance examination is defined, under the law, as any open competitive examination. And 3) Veterans' Preference is not granted once a person achieves permanent civil service status. Veteran status is verified by the California Department of Human Resources (CalHR). Information on "How to Apply for Veterans Preference" is listed below in the General Information section.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Applications are available at www.jobs.ca.gov, State Personnel Board offices, local offices of the Employment Development Department and the State Compensation Insurance Fund.

If you meet the requirements stated on this bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirement does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination will be compared with the performance of the others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

State Compensation Insurance Fund reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service, if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all competitors will be notified.

Hiring Interview Scope: In a hiring interview, in addition to the scope described in this bulletin, the panel will consider education, experience, personal development, personal traits, and fitness. In appraising experience, more weight may be given to the breadth and recency of pertinent experience and evidence of the candidate's ability to accept and fulfill increasing responsibilities than to the length of his/her experience. Evaluation of a candidate's personal development will include consideration of his/her recognition of his/her own training needs; his/her plans for self-development; and the progress he/she has made in his/her efforts toward self-development. For more information, you may refer to the classification specification.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) service-wide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on the bulletin.

How to Apply for Veterans Preference: The California Department of Human Resources (CalHR) has information on how to apply for Veterans Preference on their website at <https://jobs.ca.gov/Job/VeteransInformation> and on the Application for Veterans Preference form, CalHR-1093. Additional information is also available at the Department of Veterans Affairs website at www.calvet.ca.gov.
